

You get three of the following coupons to use<sup>1</sup> this term. Each can be used in one of a variety of ways:

Rainy Day Coupon

1. This coupon can be used to turn in a single assessment up to 6 hours late (note: may not be used on Exam #2).
OR
2. This coupon can be used to earn 5 points back on any assessment that's already been graded.
OR
3. If unused, this coupon is worth 2 extra credit points.

- If you choose to use any of your RDC according to 1 above, you must email me the assessment within the 6-hour window (note: you can't use more than one of these per any single assessment).
- If you choose to use any of your RDC according to 2 above, the following must be observed exactly:
  - You must copy and paste the question(s) that you are correcting into a document.
  - You must copy and paste your original erroneous solution(s). Please label them as such.
  - Then, you must add your corrected solutions under the erroneous ones (again, label them clearly).
  - You must give at least one sentence explaining the mistakes you made on each problem you corrected the first time.
  - You must additionally give at least one sentence describing what you learned from doing each problem over.

When you've done all of these steps, email me the document! The corrections must be correct, and all 5 steps above must be fully completed to be awarded points (you can use more than one RDC per any assessment).

- If you choose to use any of your RDC according to 3 above, you don't have to do anything.

---

<sup>1</sup> No need to print these out! I just leave them looking like old – school coupons because it reminds me of when my Grandma and I would clip them. ☺